

B1 Inspector Work Experience

For the purposes of this section, three (3) years of residential construction experience shall mean an average of two thousand (2,000) hours per year engaged in the performance of or the supervision of the performance of others in at least three (3) of the following construction areas in buildings or structures subject to the International Residential Code:

- Designs, Plans & Permits
- Foundations
- Floor Construction
- Wall Construction
- Ceilings & Roof Assemblies
- Energy Conservation
- MEP Installations

Any person aggrieved by a recommendation of the Certification Subcommittee shall have an opportunity to be heard by the full Building Code Standards Committee prior to any Subcommittee recommendations being acted upon.